

Florida Realtors® Online New Member Orientation

"Being able to offer our members several options to meet their continuing education requirements, or to assist them in their ongoing professional development, has been the key to our success as an Association. VanEd's online, self-paced coursework nicely rounds out the portfolio of products and services we offer, as we continually strive to meet and exceed the professional development needs of our members." – Sharon Hoydich, Director of Professional Development Florida Realtors®

Florida Realtors®, together with our online education provider, VanEd is proud to introduce Online New Member Orientation available to our local Boards and Associations across the state.

Designed by VanEd, in conjunction with Florida Realtors®, the base model of the Online New Member Orientation program is available as an added member benefit, in the complete foundational platform model. Or choose to customize the learning platform for your own specific needs at a nominal fee.
