

How Employers Can Verify Training Certificates

- a. Go to vaned.com and click Certificate Verification at the bottom of the page.

- b. Click on the option you need:
- Single Certificate Verification – if you are looking up one certificate
 - Multiple Certificate Verification – if you are looking up multiple certificates (for an individual or multiple individuals)

- c. Enter the information requested in the fields, then click Continue.

- d. The results will indicate whether the certificate is Valid or Expired.

The bottom screenshot is similar but shows an 'Expired Certificate' result. It has an additional 'Date of Expiration' input field. To the right of the form is a red X icon with the text 'Expired Certificate' below it. At the bottom is a purple 'Search Again' button.

- e. To validate multiple certificates, enter each complete certificate number, separating each with a comma. Click Continue. The system will provide the results indicating which certificates are valid and which are not.

The screenshot shows the 360 Training logo at the top. Below it is a '< Go Back' link. The main content area has a heading 'Multiple Certificate Verification' with an icon of three overlapping documents. Below the heading is a paragraph: 'You can provide comma-separated certificate numbers below to verify multiple certificates. You can verify up to 50 certificates at once.' Below this is a text input field labeled 'Certificate Numbers' with a character count '0/50' on the right. At the bottom is a purple 'Continue' button.
